THE SENSATION
OF THE EDINBURGH
INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

'...his movement lends
his dancers
the fluency of angels...'

The Financial Times

Don't miss the Mark Morris Dance Group when they tour Britain for the first time this spring. The sensation of three consecutive Edinburgh International Festivals, the company's triumphant performances were rapturously applauded by audiences and acclaimed by critics.

'Mark Morris is the cleverest, most inventive choreographer working in dance today.'

The Independent on Sunday

Mark Morris's work is an irresistible combination of music and movement - he's been described as the most musical choreographer alive today. Glorious to watch, and just as thrilling to listen to, see the Mark Morris Dance Group and take a fresh look at dance!

'...liking his dances is the easiest thing in the world. They make you fall in love again dancing as a distinct and life force.'

The Financial Times

Catch his excellent company performing an exciting and varied programme to LIVE music that ranges from the well-known piano music of Gershwin's Three Preludes, to Brahms' song cycle, Neue Liebesliederwitzer; to the American composer Lou Harrison's classic composition for piano and violin, Grand Duo.

And see the first British performances of the company's popular hit, Going Away Party, performed to the country rhythms of Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys.

'His musicality strikes you at once,
and he has a gift for inventing visual images that match the melodic structure with equal force.
