MEET THE ARTISTS

Mark Morris was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, Washington, where he studied with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson.

He performed with a variety of companies in the early years of his career, including the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, Hannah Kahn Dance Company, Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, Eliot Feld Ballet, and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980 and has since created more than 90 works for the Dance Group as well as choreographing dances for many ballet companies, including the San Francisco Ballet, the Paris Opera Ballet, and the American Ballet Theatre. From 1988-1991 he was Director of Dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. During his tenure there, he created 12 pieces including three evening-length works: The Hard Nut (his comic book-inspired version of The Nutcracker); L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato, and Dido and Aeneas, and founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Mr. Morris is noted for his musicality — he has been described as “undeviating in his devotion to music” and for his “ability to conjure so many contradictory styles and emotions.” He has worked extensively in opera as both choreographer and director. Most recently he directed and choreographed a production of Gluck's Orfeo ed Euridice and in 1997 the Edinburgh International Festival was the site of the premiere of the Royal Opera, Covent Garden production of Rameau's Platée. Mr. Morris also directed and choreographed the new Paul Simon/Derek Walcott musical The Capeman, which opened on Broadway in January 1998. Mr. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991 and he is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus & Giroux).

Mark Morris Dance Group was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. Since then, the company's touring schedule expanded to include cities both in the U.S. and in Europe. In 1986, the Dance Group made its first national television program for the PBS Dance in America series. In 1988 the Mark Morris Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium. The company was in residence at Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels for three years. The company returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies. It appears regularly in Boston, MA; Berkeley, CA; at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival and the Edinburgh International Festival in Scotland. In addition to a full international touring schedule, the Dance Group has recently completed two film projects: a collaboration with cellist Yo-Yo Ma entitled Falling Down Stairs using Bach's Third Suite for unaccompanied cello and a film version of Henry Purcell's Dido and Aeneas, both scheduled to air around the world during the 1997-98 season.

She has premiered several works for chamber ensemble and solo viola with the New York Art Ensemble and the Algonquin String Quartet.
