MARK MORRIS was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, Washington, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. He performed with a variety of companies in the early years of his career, including the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, Hannah Kahn Dance Company, Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, Eliot Feld Ballet, and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980, and has since created over 90 works for the Dance Group, as well as choreographing dances for many ballet companies, including the San Francisco Ballet, the Paris Opera Ballet, and American Ballet Theatre. From 1988-1991 he was Director of Dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. During his tenure there, he created 12 pieces including three evening-length works: The Hard Nut (his comic book-inspired version of The Nutcracker); L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; and Dido and Aeneas, and founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Mr. Morris is noted for his musicality — he has been described as “undeviating in his devotion to music” — and for his “ability to conjure so many contradictory styles and emotions”. He has worked extensively in opera as both a choreographer and a director. Most recently, he directed and choreographed a Royal Opera, Covent Garden production of Rameau’s Platée which premiered at the Edinburgh International Festival in 1997. Mr. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991, and he is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus & Giroux).

MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. In the following years, the company’s touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities both in the U.S. and in Europe and, in 1986, the Dance Group made its first national television program for the PBS Dance in America series. In 1988, the Mark Morris Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium. During its three-years as resident company of the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the Dance Group was the subject of several television programs, including the U.K.’s South Bank Show. The company returned to the United States in 1991, as one of the world’s leading dance companies, performing across the U.S. and at major international festivals. The Dance Group has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world — audiences have become accustomed to the Dance Group’s regular and frequent appearances in Boston, MA; Berkeley, CA; at the Jacob’s Pillow Dance Festival and the Edinburgh International Festival in Scotland. In addition to a full international touring schedule, the Dance Group has recently completed two film projects: a collaboration with cellist Yo-Yo Ma entitled Falling Down Stairs using Bach’s Third Suite for unaccompanied cello, and a film version of Mr. Morris’ Dido and Aeneas, both scheduled to air around the world in 1998. The company’s British premiere performances of L’Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato with the English National Opera garnered the Dance Group the 1997 Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Dance Production.

ARTEK is an early music organization reflecting the artistic vision of founding director Gwendolyn Toth. Artek’s yearly series of orchestra, dance, theater, and chamber music events in New York City regularly receives high acclaim from the New York Times, and Artek’s first compact disk release of Monteverdi’s opera Orfeo (on the Lyrichord Early Music Series label) has garnered rave reviews. Ms. Toth has guided Artek to prominence through her unerring ability to create outstanding programs both of well-known masterpieces presented in a fresh, creative setting and rarely heard gems from the 17th and 18th century newly presented to 20th-century audiences. The Artek singers are all distinguished international soloists in their own right, who join together to create an exceptional vocal ensemble for the performance of music from the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. 458 Strings is an ensemble of the continuo and bass players of Artek with a unique sound comprised of harp, theorbo, lutes, guitar, and various keyboard instruments. 458 Strings can be heard on Artek’s most recent CD release, Love Letters from Italy (also on the Lyrichord Early Music Series), accompanying countertenor Drew Minter in a program of 17th-century arias and cantatas.

PHILIP ANDERSON (tenor) has received critical acclaim across the United States for his performance in the title role of The Play of Daniel with New York’s ensemble for Early Music. He recently made his European debut in France singing Scarlatti’s La Giuditta with L’Orchestre du Moulin d’Andé. He has also been a soloist many times with the Sacred Music in a Sacred Space concert series at the

After graduating with honors in English and American Literature, he moved to New York and performed in the works of Robert Wilson, Ulysses Dove, and danced with The Paul Taylor Dance Company for two years before going to Belgium to work with Mark Morris.

CHARLTON BOYD was born in New Jersey where he studied and performed with Inner City Ensemble Theater & Dance Company. He is a graduate of the Juilliard School and has danced with the Limon Dance Company and in the musical The Ebony Games. He has received rave notices for his portrayal of the Archangel in the New York Ensemble for Early Music's production of Herod at Spoleto U.S.A., and for the role of Sandy in the Boston Shakespeare Company's production of P.M. Davies' The Lighthouse. Recent appearances include Haydn and Mozart operas with the Connecticut Early Music Festival, Mozart's C minor Mass with American Bach Soloists, and Campra's L'Europe Galante with Capriole in Virginia.
