MARK MORRIS was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, Washington, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. He performed with a variety of companies in the early years of his career, including the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, Hannah Kahn Dance Company, Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, Eliot Feld Ballet, and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980, and has since created over one hundred works for the Dance Group, as well as choreographing dances for many ballet companies, including the San Francisco Ballet, the Paris Opera Ballet, and American Ballet Theatre. From 1988-1991 he was Director of Dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. During his tenure there, he created twelve pieces including three evening-length works: The Hard Nut (his comic book-inspired version of The Nutcracker); L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; and Dido and Aeneas, and founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Morris is noted for his musicality—he has been described as "undeviating in his devotion to music"—and for his "ability to conjure so many contradictory styles and emotions." He has worked extensively in opera as both a choreographer and a director. Most recently, he directed and choreographed a Royal Opera, Covent Garden production of Rameau's Platée which premiered at the Edinburgh International Festival in 1997 and had its New York debut with The New York City Opera in April 2000 at Lincoln Center. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991, and he is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus & Giroux).

MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. In the following years, the company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities both in the U.S. and in Europe and, in 1986, the Dance Group made its first national television program for the PBS Dance in America series. In 1988, the Mark Morris Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium. During its three years as resident company of the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the Dance Group was the subject of several television programs, including the U.K.'s South Bank Show. The company returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies, performing across the U.S. and at major international festivals. The Dance Group has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world, most notably Berkeley, California where, for the past several years, the Dance Group has performed twice annually at CalPerformances including presentations of The Hard Nut each December from 1996–1999. Audiences have also become accustomed to the Dance Group's regular and frequent appearances in Boston, Massachusetts; Fairfax, Virginia; London, England; and at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Becket, Massachusetts. The Dance Group was recently named the official dance company (2000–2005) of the Virginia Waterfront International Arts Festival. In addition to a full international touring schedule, the Dance Group has recently completed two film projects: an Emmy Award-winning collaboration with cellist Yo-Yo Ma entitled Falling Down Stairs using Bach's Third Suite for unaccompanied cello and a film version of Morris' Dido and Aeneas. The company's British premiere performances of L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato with the English National Opera garnered the Dance Group the 1997 Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Dance Production.

JOE BOWIE, born in Lansing, Michigan, began dancing while attending Brown University. After graduating with honors in English and American Literature, he moved to New York and performed in the works of Robert Wilson, Ulysses Dove, and danced with The Paul Taylor Dance Company for two years before going to Belgium to work with Mark Morris in 1989.

CHARLTON BOYD was born in New Jersey where he studied and performed with Inner City Ensemble Theater & Dance Company. He is a graduate of the Juilliard School and has danced with the Limon Dance Company. He appears in the Jose Limon Technique Video, Volume 1, and other music videos. In concert, she has guested with Syracuse Symphony, Newark Cathedral Symphony, Adirondack Festival Orchestra, and Long Island Symphonic Chorale. Eileen has sung for dance companies such as the Limon Dance Company, Anita Feldman Tap, and New York Baroque Dance Co. When not touring with Mark Morris Dance Group (with whom she sings works by Brahms, Purcell, Monteverdi, and Vivaldi), she enjoys singing as soloist and chorister with Lilith and Ascension Music Inc., and creating unusual concerts with vocal quartet Kiitos. Clark has recorded on Delos, Sony, Vox, Newport Classics, RCA, and appears on the sound track of Dead Man Walking.

JOHN HOLLENBECK (percussion), always in pursuit of new musical languages, has recently collaborated with Meredith Monk as well as many of the world's finest jazz ensembles while continuing his solo performances in such places as Brazil. In addition to his small-group jazz performances with Ellery Eskelin, Hank Roberts, Mark Dresser, and David Liebman, he is also a member of Bob Brookmeyer's New Art Orchestra and is a frequent guest with the Village Vanguard Orchestra, Maria Schneider's Jazz Orchestra, and the BMI Orchestra. A student of Brazilian and Indian music, Hollenbeck also performs a variety of traditional musics from around the world. Hollenbeck is the recipient of a B.M. in percussion and a M.M. in jazz composition from the Eastman School of Music. His first recording as a leader was issued on the CRI label in 1999. At the present, he leads two ensembles: The Claudia Quintet and Quartet Lucy.

A modern jazz pianist, Iverson's latest CD (The Minor Passions, with Reid Anderson and Billy Hart) was first on Ben Ratliff's list of the Top Ten "alternative" jazz recordings of 1999 in The New York Times. This year Iverson's engagements include solo, trio, and quartet performances as a leader (his Weill Hall recital debut is next February), sideman appearances with the Dave Douglas Sextet and the Mark Turner Quartet, and his concerto debut playing the Pat Zimmerli Piano Concerto with Metamorphosen in Boston. His piano teachers are Sophia Rosoff and Fred Hersch.

In 1991, he was offered a full scholarship by the Mannes School of Music where he studied cello with Timothy Eddy, and chamber music with Felix Galimir. As a winner of Artists International he gave his debut to critical acclaim at Will Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall in April 1995. Wolfram serves as cellist with the Meridian String Quartet and is on faculty of the New York Youth Symphony Chamber Music Program and is in residence at the Aaron Copland School of Music at Queens College.

MIREILLE RADWAN-DANA joined in 1988. "The six Grandfathers have placed in this world many things, all of which should be happy. Every little thing is sent for something, and in that thing there should be happiness and the power to make happy. Like the grasses showing tender faces to each other, thus we should do, for this was the wish of the Grandfathers of the world." (Black Elk)
