

The 2001-2002 Season of Dance

Dance St. Louis

Mark Morris Dance Group

February 1-2, 8 p.m.
Fox Theatre

From the Director's Chair...

Since Mark Morris Dance Group's last appearance in St. Louis in 1995, Mark Morris has become a choreographer of even greater enduring renown. He is definitely not a flash in the pan, and we are so pleased to welcome him back, this time to the great Fox Theatre, with live music.

Speaking of music, it has been said more than once that Mark Morris is the Mozart of contemporary dance. Many of you may remember his Sandpaper Ballet in the wonderful performance of San Francisco Ballet that opened our 35th anniversary season. It's not many choreographers who will go from the music of Leroy Anderson, as Morris did in that sparkling work, to "Limehouse Blues" and Robert Schumann or Antonin Dvorak, as you'll see tonight. I think you all will agree that Mark Morris is unique.

Just a month from tonight, we have more dance that has truly earned the term "unique," when the shape-shifting, acrobatic dancers of Pilobolus Too perform the greatest solos and duets of their parent company, Pilobolus, at the Edison Theatre on March 1-3. On April 12-13, Miami City Ballet glitters in a Balanchine masterpiece, the full-evening Jewels, accompanied in glorious music of Fauré, Stravinsky, and Tchaikovsky by the Ballet Orchestra of St. Louis. We close our season in another collaboration with the Edison Theatre's OVATIONS! Series with the theatrical and entertaining River North Chicago Dance Company.

Yes, our performances continue to bring the greatest dance of the world to St. Louis audiences—but I also want you to know that we devote as much of our time, energy and resources to our vitally important education programs. Barely two weeks ago, on January 22, we embarked on an unprecedented six-week-long residency by Pilobolus Too. This residency both builds upon residencies we have conducted with this company over the past four years, and breaks new ground as the dancers visit Pike and Lincoln County for the first time, Warren County for the third time, and the Parkway School District for the fourth time. In daily workshops, students learn new ways to focus and work together that carry through into the rest of their lives. It is an inspiring process to watch, and we are proud to make it happen.

MARK MORRIS was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, Washington, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. He performed with a variety of companies in the early years of his career, including the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, Hannah Kahn Dance Company, Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, Eliot Feld Ballet, and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group (MMDG) in 1980, and has since created over 100 works for the Dance Group, and over a dozen commissions for ballet companies, including San Francisco Ballet, Paris Opera Ballet, and American Ballet Theatre. From 1988-1991 he was Director of Dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. During his tenure there, he created 12 pieces including three evening-length works: The Hard Nut (his comic book-inspired version of The Nutcracker); L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; and Dido and Aeneas, and founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Mr. Morris is noted for his musicality - he has been described as "undeviating in his devotion to music" - and for his "ability to conjure so many contradictory styles and emotions." He has worked extensively in opera. He directed and choreographed a Royal Opera, Covent Garden production of Rameau's Platée that premiered at the Edinburgh International Festival in 1997 and had its New York debut with The New York City Opera in April 2000 at Lincoln Center. Most recently, he directed and choreographed the June 2000 English National Opera production of Four Saints in Three Acts. Mr. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991, and he is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus & Giroux).

MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. In the following years, the company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities in the U.S. and in Europe and, in 1986, the Dance Group made its first national television program for the PBS Dance in America series. In 1988, the Mark Morris Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium. During its three years as resident company of the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the Dance Group was the subject of several television programs, including the U.K.'s South Bank Show. The company returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies, performing across the U.S. and at major international festivals. The Dance Group has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world, most notably Berkeley, CA where, for the past several years, the Dance Group has performed twice annually at CalPerformances - including presentations of The Hard Nut each December from 1996 - 2000. Audiences have also become accustomed to the Dance Group's regular and frequent appearances in Boston, MA; Seattle, WA; Fairfax, VA; London, England; and at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Becket, MA. The Dance Group was named the official dance company (2000 - 2005) of the Virginia Waterfront International Arts Festival. In addition to a full international touring schedule, the Dance Group has completed three film projects: an Emmy Award-winning collaboration with cellist Yo-Yo Ma entitled Falling Down Stairs using Bach's Third Suite for unaccompanied cello, a film version of Mr. Morris' Dido and Aeneas and a video of The Hard Nut. In fall 2000, MMDG was the subject of a second documentary for London's South Bank Show. In 1997 the Dance Group won the Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Dance Production for their British premiere performances of L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato with English National Opera. The Mark Morris Dance Group celebrated its 20th anniversary with a three-week season at the Brooklyn Academy of Music in March 2001. In fall 2001, MMDG opened the Mark Morris Dance Center in Brooklyn, New York. This 30,000 square-foot facility features three studios, and is the company's first permanent headquarters in the U.S.

These recordings have been placed on The New York Times "Ten Best of the Year" lists for 2000, 1999, and 1998, and they caused the prestigious Penguin Guide to Jazz on CD to say that Iverson was "likely to be a major force." In the year 2001 Iverson's regular trio with Reid Anderson and Billy Hart will be touring Italy and America. Recent sideman appearances include gigs with the Dave Douglas Sextet

As a soloist, Mr. Koessel has performed the standard as well as unusual cello concerto repertoire with the Jupiter Symphony, the New York Metamorphoses Orchestra, which he co-founded in 1994, the Mannes Orchestra and the Symphony Orchestras of Cordoba, Mendoza, Costa Rica and Stuttgart.
