EXPRESSION SHOULD NOT BE CONSTRAINED.

Mark Morris was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, Washington, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. He performed with a variety of companies in the early years of his career, including the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, Hannah Kahn Dance Company, Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, Eliot Feld Ballet, and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980, and has since created over 90 works for the Dance Group, as well as choreographing dances for many ballet companies, including the San Francisco Ballet, the Paris Opera Ballet, and American Ballet Theatre. From 1988-1991 he was Director of Dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. During his tenure there, he created 12 pieces including three evening-length works: The Hard Nut (his comic book-inspired version of The Nutcracker); L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; and Dido and Aeneas, and founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Mr. Morris is noted for his musicality — he has been described as “undeviating in his devotion to music” — and for his “ability to conjure so many contradictory styles and emotions.” He has worked extensively in opera as both a choreographer and a director. Most recently, he directed and choreographed a Royal Opera, Covent Garden production of Rameau's Platée which premiered at the Edinburgh International Festival in 1997. Mr. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991, and he is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus & Giroux).

Mark Morris Dance Group was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. In the following years, the company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities both in the U.S. and in Europe and, in 1986, the Dance Group made its first national television program for the PBS Dance in America series. In 1988, the Mark Morris Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium. During its three-years as resident company of the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the Dance Group was the subject of several television programs, including the U.K.'s South Bank Show. The company returned to the United States in 1991, as one of the world's leading dance companies, performing across the U.S. and at major international festivals. The Dance Group has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world — audiences have become accustomed to the Dance Group's regular and frequent appearances in Boston, MA; Berkeley, CA; at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival and the Edinburgh International Festival in Scotland. In addition to a full international touring schedule, the Dance Group has recently completed two film projects: a collaboration with cellist Yo-Yo Ma entitled Falling Down Stairs using Bach's Third Suite for unaccompanied cello, and a film version of Mr. Morris' Dido and Aeneas. The company's British premiere performances of L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato with the English National Opera garnered the Dance Group the 1997 Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Dance Production.

Yo-Yo Ma was born in 1955 of Chinese parents living in Paris. He began studying cello with his father at age four and soon moved with his family to New York, where he spent most of his formative years. Mr. Ma maintains a balance between his engagements as a soloist with orchestras throughout the world and his recital and chamber music activities. He draws inspiration from a wide circle of collaborators, creating programs with such artists as Emanuel Ax, Daniel Barenboim, Christoph Eschenbach, Pamela Frank, Jeffrey Kahane, Young Uck Kim, Jaime Laredo, Bobby McFerrin, Edgar Meyer, Mark O'Connor, Peter Serkin, Isaac Stern, Richard Stoltzman and Kathryn Stott. Mr. Ma also works frequently with artists from disciplines outside of music. One such multi-year project is his recent re-exploration of J.S. Bach's Suites for unaccompanied cello, through concert performances of the cycle in numerous cities, a new recording of the works and, most notably, a series of films under the title Inspired by Bach. The six films — one for each suite — use Bach's music as the starting point for new collaborative works and depict the creative process that produced the interpretations of Mr. Ma and his fellow artists (choreographer Mark Morris, Kabuki artist Tamasaburo, ice dancers Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean, garden designer Julie Moir Messervy and such filmmakers at Atom Egoyan and François Girard). Mr. Ma is an exclusive Sony Classical artist, and his discography of nearly 50 albums (including 12 Grammy winners) reflects his wide-ranging interests. In addition to the standard concerto repertoire, Mr. Ma has recorded many of the works he has commissioned or premiered. He has also made several successful “crossover” recordings that defy categorization, among them Hush with Bobby McFerrin, Appalachia Waltz with Mark O'Connor and Edgar Meyer, and Piazzolla: Soul of the Tango. Mr. Ma has studied at the Juilliard School and received his B.A. from Harvard University.

Joe Bowie, born in Lansing, Michigan, began dancing while attending Brown University. After graduating with honors in English and American Literature, he moved to New York and performed in the works of Robert Wilson, Ulysses Dove, and danced with The Paul Taylor Dance Company for two years before going to Belgium to work with Mark Morris in 1989.

Charlton Boyd was born in New Jersey where he studied and performed with Inner City Ensemble Theater & Dance Company. He is a graduate of the Juilliard School and has danced with the Limon Dance Company. He appears in the Jose Limon Technique Video, Volume I, and other music videos. He first appeared with the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1989 and became a full company member in 1994.

Michael Chybowski (lighting designer) has recently designed the New York Shakespeare Festival's Cymbeline at the Delacorte in Central Park and Wit, with Kathleen Chalfant, at the Union Square Theater. As resident designer at A.R.T. in Cambridge the past two seasons, he has designed The Bacchae, Taming of the Shrew, A Jungle of Cities, and The Wild Duck, Phaedra, and The Merchant of Venice. Other recent work in New York includes The Grey Zone, directed by Doug Hughes, which received the Lucille Lortel Award for best Off-Broadway lighting design, A Question of Mercy in its premiere at New York Theatre Workshop, and Waiting for Godot at Classic Stage Company. His most recent work with the Mark Morris Dance Group includes Dancing Honeymoon and Greek to Me, both of which premiered this past fall. Upcoming projects include Laurie Ander-

His plans for expansion include not only that in the clothing industry but in the entertainment industry as well. In 1995, Mizrahi was the subject of the highly acclaimed documentary Unzipped, directed by Douglas Kieve which won the 1995 Audience Award for Documentaries at the Sundance Film Festival.
