G3 KATHAKALI AND THEYAM
Kala Chethena Kathakali Company

This is the first of two different performances featuring the internationally renowned company, Kala Chethena. Full of emotion and potent symbolism, Kathakali is spectacularly colourful theatre, drawn from the sacred dance drama in the temples of Kerala, South India. A ritual dance for prosperity, Theyam, which has not toured widely in England before, opens the show. Actors, singers and drummers bring alive the stories and characters of the Hindu epics such as the Mahabharatha and the Ramayana.

*Gulbenkian Theatre
University of Kent*

7.45pm

Tickets: £9.00, students £6.00

Tuesday 19th

G4 OPPRESSION OF THE INNOCENT
Kala Chethena Kathakali Company

Adapted and directed by Kalamandalam Vijayakumar. Using the charismatic body language and facial expressions of Kathakali, this is an interpretation of the story of Snow White and how the Queen fails to cope with old age. Her obsessive vanity finally leads to destruction. This evening is particularly suitable for children and families.

*Gulbenkian Theatre
University of Kent*

7.45pm

Tickets: £9.00, students £6.00

Saturday 16th

ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST

by Dale Wasserman

Based on the novel by Ken Kesey with Mike McShane. Ken Kesey's first novel was produced successfully on Broadway and became an Oscar-winning film with Jack Nicholson. There is strong language which some patrons may find offensive.

*The Marlowe Theatre
The Friars*

M1 2.30pm M2 7.30pm

Tuesday 19th and Wednesday 20th

MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP M4 Tues M5 Weds

dance  umbrella presents

Following sensational years at the Edinburgh International Festival, Mark Morris Dance Group comes to The Marlowe as part of their second British Tour. Hailed by critics as the most inventive choreographer, Mark Morris presents an irresistible and magical mixed bill. Joyous, witty and dashing choreography, glorious live music and beautiful dance combine in a feast of colour, music and movement. "Some of the best dance in the world today." The Independent

*The Marlowe Theatre,
