Mark Morris

Mark Morris was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, Washington, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. In the early years of his career, he performed with Lar Lubovitch, Hannah Kahn, Laura Dean, Eliot Feld, and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980, and has since created over 100 works for the company. From 1988-1991, he was Director of Dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. Among the works created during his tenure were three evening-length dances: The Hard Nut; L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; and Dido and Aeneas. In 1990, he founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov.

Mr. Morris is also much in demand as a ballet choreographer. He has created four works on the San Francisco Ballet since 1994 and received commissions from companies such as American Ballet Theatre, Boston Ballet, and the Paris Opera Ballet. His work is in the repertory of the Geneva Ballet, New Zealand Ballet, English National Ballet, and the Royal Ballet, Covent Garden. He has worked extensively in opera, directing and choreographing productions for the New York City Opera, English National Opera, and the Royal Opera, Covent Garden.

Mark Morris Dance Group

The Mark Morris Dance Group was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. The company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities in the US and Europe, and in 1986, it made its first national television program for the PBS series Dance in America. In 1988, the Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium, and spent three years in residence at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels.

The company returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies, performing across the US and at major international festivals. It has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world, most notably Berkeley, California, where Cal Performances presents the company twice each season, including engagements of The Hard Nut in December. MMDG also appears regularly in Boston, Massachusetts; Fairfax, Virginia; Seattle, Washington; Urbana-Champaign, Illinois; and at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Becket, Massachusetts. It made its debut at the Mostly Mozart Festival in 2002 and at the Tanglewood Music Festival in 2003. The company's London seasons have garnered two Laurence Olivier Awards.

The Mark Morris Dance Group is noted for its commitment to live music, a feature of every performance on its full international touring schedule since 1996. Cellist Yo-Yo Ma has frequently collaborated with the Dance Group; their projects include the 1997 Emmy Award-winning film Falling Down Stairs, using Bach's Third Suite for Unaccompanied Cello, and the 2002 dance Kolam, created for the Silk Road Project in collaboration with Indian composer Zakir Hussain and jazz pianist Ethan Iverson of The Bad Plus. MMDG's film and television projects include Dido and Aeneas, The Hard Nut, and two documentaries for the UK's "South Bank Show."

In 2001, the Mark Morris Dance Center opened in Brooklyn, New York. The 30,000-square foot facility features three studios and a school for dance students of all ages.

Gabriel Kahane (piano) is a recent graduate of Brown University, where he read lots of good books and was involved in the production of many theatre pieces and political protests. As a composer, he received honors from the Kennedy Center for his musical Straight Man, written with playwright/lyricist Thomas Beatty. In the 2004-2005 season, Mr. Kahane will appear in recital with the German bass-baritone Thomas Quasthoff in programs devoted to the American songbook. Since moving to New York City, Mr. Kahane has continued to study piano with teachers Fred Hersch and Sophia Rosoff, and is currently at work on a cycle of pop/art songs, which he hopes to perform in the near future.

Wolfram Koessel (cello) made his critically acclaimed debut at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall in 1994. Since then, he has performed as soloist and chamber musician in concert halls throughout the world. Based in New York City, he appears with a wide range of ensembles and chamber music groups, most notably the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra and the Jupiter Symphony. As a soloist, Mr. Koessel has performed the standard as well as unusual cello concerto repertoire with the Jupiter Symphony, the New York Metamorphoses Orchestra which he co-founded in 1994, the Mannes Orchestra, and the Symphony Orchestras of Cordoba, Mendoza, Costa Rica, and Stuttgart. Multifaceted as a chamber musician, Mr. Koessel is on the faculty of the New York Youth Symphony Chamber Music Program and is the music director of Sundays on the Island, a chamber music series on New York's City Island. He served, until recently, as cellist with the award-winning Meridian String Quartet. His performance of Tchaikovsky's Rococo Variations was featured on WQXR's "Young Artists Showcase." Upon completion of his master's degree at the Mannes College of Music, Mr. Koessel was the recipient of the George and Elizabeth Gregory Award for Excellence in Performance. He has performed with the Mark Morris Dance Group since 2000.

David Leventhal, raised in Newton, Massachusetts, has danced with the Mark Morris Dance Group since 1997. Previously, he worked with José Mateo's Ballet Theatre and the companies of Marcus Schulkind, Amy Spencer and Richard Colton, Ben Munisteri, and Zvi Gotheiner. He graduated from Brown University in 1995 with honors in English literature.

Bradon McDonald received a BFA from The Juilliard School in 1997. After graduation, he won the Princess Grace Award and joined the Limón Dance Company where, for three years, he performed roles such as Eros in Limón's The Winged, Iago in Limón's The Moor's Pavane, and the third and fifth solos in Tudor's Dark Elegies, as well as works by Jiri Kylian, Doug Varone, Igal Perry, and Donald McKayle. Mr. McDonald has choreographed and presented his own works internationally and has served as choreographer for seven Juilliard Opera Company productions under the director Frank Corsaro. Recently, Bradon was the choreographic assistant to Donald McKayle for his new work on the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. Bradon joined the Mark Morris Dance Group in April 2000.

Amber Merkens began her dance training with Nancy Mittleman in Newport, Oregon. She received a BFA from The Juilliard School in 1999 and went on to dance with the Limón Dance Company for two years. She is a recipient of the 2001 Princess Grace Award and has presented her own choreography in various venues, including Alice Tully Hall and the Joyce Soho. Ms. Merkens joined the Mark Morris Dance Group in August 2001.

Gregory Nuber began working with MMDG in 1998 and became a company member in 2001. He was a member of Pascal Rioult Dance Theatre for three years, has appeared as a guest artist with New York City Opera, Cleveland Opera, and Tennessee Repertory Theatre, and has worked with numerous New York based choreographers. Mr. Nuber is a graduate of Arizona State University where he studied acting and dance.

Maile Okamura was born and raised in San Diego. She was a member of Boston Ballet II and Ballet Arizona before moving to New York in 1996. Since then, she has had the pleasure of dancing with Neta Pulvermacher, Zvi Gotheiner, Gerald Casel, and many others. Ms. Okamura began working with MMDG in 1998 and became a company member in 2001.

June Omura spent her first six years in New York City, then grew up in Birmingham, Alabama. She returned to New York to attend Barnard College, graduating in 1986 with honors in dance and English, and has been dancing for Mark Morris since 1988. She is the proud mother of twin girls, born in July 2003, and is indebted to her husband, her family, and the Mark Morris Dance Group for their support.

Matthew Rose received a BFA from the University of Michigan. He has appeared with the Martha Graham Dance Company, Pascal Rioult Dance Theater, and Ann Arbor Dance Works. Mr. Rose began working with the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1997 and became a company member in 1999.

Stefan Schatz (percussion) is a 1995 graduate of New York's prestigious New School Jazz and Contemporary Music Program, with degrees in performance and creative writing. He has performed with some of the finest names in jazz, including Dakota Staton, Jon Hendricks, Milt Hinton, Mark Turner, Ray Bryant, and Buster Brown. As a member of the Glenn Miller Orchestra and an accompanist for the dance troupe Manhattan Tap, Mr. Schatz toured extensively throughout the United States, Canada, Central and South America, and Europe. In 1998, he was featured in a jazz trio and traveled to over 30 different countries on the Crystal Symphony World Cruise. Stefan has studied with Vernel Fournier, Marvin "Bugaloo" Smith, Kenny Washington, Lewis Nash, and Bernard Purdie.

Andrea Schultz (violin) currently performs and tours with the Cabrini Quartet, New York Chamber Ensemble, Sequitur, Brandenburg Ensemble, and the Orchestra of St. Luke's. She has also appeared with the Apple Hill Chamber Players, Da Capo Chamber Players, Sospeso, Ensemble 21, Eberli Ensemble, Cygnus, Mostly Mozart, and the Limón Dance Company. Ms. Schultz has spent summers performing at the Tanglewood, Aspen, Ravinia, Caramoor, Vermont Mozart, and Cape May Music Festivals, as well as the Pundakit International Chamber Music Festival in the Phillipines. She has recorded for the Phoenix, CRI, and New World labels. A graduate of Yale University, she has also received an MM and Artist Diploma from the Cleveland Institute of Music and a DMA from SUNY-Stony Brook.

Jessica Troy (viola) has played for the Mark Morris Dance Group since 1998. A native New Yorker, she holds degrees from Amherst College, SUNY-Stony Brook, and the Musikhochschule in Luebeck, Germany, where her major teachers were Philipp Naegele, Caroline Levine, and Barbara Westphal. She has been a participant at many chamber music festivals, including Marlboro and Prussia Cove, performing with Felix Galimir, Nobuko Imai, Isidore Cohen, Siegfried Palm, Ida Levin and James Tocco, among others. She has had the opportunity to work with many composers on original works, including Roger Reynolds, Jacob Druckman, Oliver Knussen, and Gyorgy Kurtag; her performance of music by the latter can be heard on a recent Bridge CD celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Marlboro Music Festival. A member of the Brooklyn Philharmonic, she is also an active chamber musician, including performances with Sequitor, the Jupiter Symphony Chamber Players, and the Eberli Ensemble, as well as with the Acacia, Maia, and Meridian String Quartets.

Noah Vinson received his BA in dance from Columbia College Chicago, where he worked with Shirley Mordine, Jan Erkert, and Brian Jeffrey. In New York, he has danced with Teri and Oliver Steele and the Kevin Wynn Collection. He has danced with MMDG in L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato and The Hard Nut, and became an apprentice in 2003.

Julie Worden, from Naples, Florida, is a graduate of the North Carolina School of the Arts. She worked with Chicago choreographers Bob Eisen, Jan Erkert, and Sheldon B. Smith. She has been dancing with Mark Morris since 1994.

Michelle Yard was born in Brooklyn, New York. She began her professional dance training at the New York City High School of the Performing Arts. Upon graduation, she received the Helen Tamiris and B'nai Brith awards. For three years, she was also a scholarship student at the Alvin Ailey Dance Center. She attended New York University's Tisch School of the Arts, where she graduated with a BFA. Ms. Yard began dancing with the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1997.

COME DEPRESSED. LEAVE DIFFERENT.

The Promenade
at Krannert Center

Proceeds from your purchases at The Promenade are invested right back into the performances you see on Krannert Center stages. On behalf of our community, we thank you.
