WHO'S WHO

MARK MORRIS was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, Washington, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. In the early years of his career, he performed with Lar Lubovitch, Hannah Kahn, Laura Dean, Eliot Feld, and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980, and has since created over 100 works for the company. From 1988–1991, he was Director of Dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. Among the works created during his tenure were three evening-length dances: The Hard Nut; L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; and Dido and Aeneas. In 1990, he founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Morris is also much in demand as a ballet choreographer. He has created four works on the San Francisco Ballet since 1994 and received commissions from such companies as American Ballet Theatre, Boston Ballet, and the Paris Opera Ballet. His work is in the repertory of the Geneva Ballet, New Zealand Ballet, English National Ballet, and the Royal Ballet, Covent Garden. He has worked extensively in opera, directing and choreographing productions for the New York City Opera, English National Opera, and the Royal Opera, Covent Garden. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991. He has received honorary doctorates from The Boston Conservatory of Music, The Juilliard School, Long Island University, Pratt Institute, and Bowdoin College. Morris is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus & Giroux). In 2001, Marlowe & Company published Mark Morris' L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato: A Celebration, a volume of photographs and critical essays.

MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. The company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities both in the U.S. and in Europe, and in 1986 it made its first national television program for the PBS series Dance in America. In 1988, the Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium, and spent three years in residence at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels. The company returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies, performing across the U.S. and at major international festivals. It has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world, most notably Berkeley, CA, where Cal Performances presents the company in two annual seasons, including engagements of The Hard Nut each December. It appears regularly in Boston, MA; Fairfax, VA; Seattle, WA; Urbana-Champaign, IL; and at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Becket, MA. It made its debut at BRIC/Brooklyn Information & Culture, a not-for-profit corporation founded in 1979, presents cultural, educational and media programs reflective of the borough's diverse communities. We serve the needs of artists and the general public by developing programs that give voice to the art and issues of our time. Our flagship programs include Celebrate Brooklyn, a large-scale performing arts festival at the Prospect Park Bandshell; the Rotunda Gallery, a center for contemporary visual art and arts education; BCAT/Brooklyn Community Access Television, the borough's public access training facility and channels; and BRIC Studio, a performance center for experimental art and new media. For more information about BRIC and its programs, visit our website at www.briconline.org.

Now in its 26th year, Celebrate Brooklyn is BRIC's summer-long festival of multicultural music, dance, spoken word and film. Presented free to the public at the Prospect Park Bandshell, the festival draws a yearly attendance of over 200,000.

One of NYC's longest running outdoor performing arts festivals, Celebrate Brooklyn reflects the borough's diverse population and offers exciting programs that feature artists from Brooklyn and around the world. Nearly 2,000 artists have performed here since 1979 including jazz master Max Roach, salsa songstress La India, acclaimed monologist Eric Bogosian, and cutting-edge choreographer Mark Morris.
