Welcome to Bradford Theatres

We are extremely grateful for the support you give Bradford Theatres, which enables us to continue to bring internationally renowned dance companies of such high calibre to the city.

I am sure you will agree that although the season in 2009 is shorter than usual (from July to October), it contains the very best in dance currently touring on the circuit.

We are delighted to welcome back regulars Northern Ballet Theatre with their vivid and energetic adaptation of Wuthering Heights; and Matthew Bourne with a brand new production based on Oscar Wilde's Dorian Gray. For the first time, we are delighted to host Mark Morris Dance Group, who stop off in Bradford for two nights only on a limited UK tour.

As well as watching these superb shows, you can also participate in a range of dance workshops plus pre and post-show discussions with the companies visiting us; and don't forget to take advantage of our special Dance Subscription Package.

Do please join us during 2009, I am sure you will enjoy this fantastic season of dance at the Alhambra Theatre.

With best regards

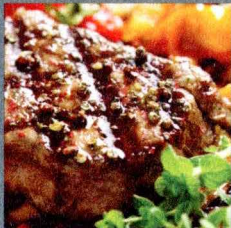

Adam Renton General Manager Bradford Theatres

“Some of the best dance in the world today... see it if you can.”

The Independent

Master of American contemporary dance, Mark Morris has become the benchmark of creativity for a generation of dancers, choreographers and audiences. So, as The Guardian newspaper said, “the return to Britain of Mark Morris is a true cause for celebration”.

Music is always at the heart of Morris' ballets, and as his dancers travel in beautiful sweeping pathways across the stage it is almost as if the music comes alive in movement. His constant refusal to take himself too seriously is there in his work, which can switch in mood from the deeply moving to the down right silly. Mark Morris and his group of dancers never fail to surprise, soothe and stimulate – which is why they have become firm favourites with UK audiences.
