“Morris is our Mozart of
modern dance” The Washington Post

Master of American contemporary dance, Mark Morris has become the benchmark of creativity for a generation of dancers, choreographers and audiences. So, as The Guardian newspaper said, “the return to Britain of Mark Morris is a true cause for celebration”.

With music always at the heart of Morris’ ballets, the sweeping pathways created by his dancers’ physicality make melodies appear to come alive within movement. His constant refusal to take himself too seriously means the mood can switch from the deeply moving to the down right silly, while always maintaining the slick sense of technical and artistic quality that has become inspiration for so many.

Four stimulating pieces Excursions, Going Away Party, Bedtime and Grand Duo promise an electrifying merging of music and movement.

modern dance" The Washington Post

Mae Mark Morris yn feistr dawns gyfoes Americanaidd, ac mae'n feincnod creadigol i genedlaethau o ddawnswyr, coreograffwyr a chynulleidfaoedd. Yng ngeiriau papur newydd
The Guardian, "the return to Britain of Mark Morris is a true cause for celebration".

Mae cerddoriaeth bob amser wrth galon cynrychiadau ballet Morris, ac mae alawon yn dod yn fyw trwy symudiad ysgubol a chorfforol ei ddawnswyr. Mae'n gwrthod cymryd ei hunan ormod o ddifrif ac, o ganlyniad, gall naws y perfformiad newid yn llwyr – o fod yn llawn ing ac emosiwn i fod yn hollol wirion bost; ond mae bob amser yn cynnal yr ansawdd dechnegol ac artistig uchel hynny sydd wedi ysbrydoli cymaint.

Gyda'r pedwar darn cyffrous Excursions, Going Away Party, Bedtime a Grand Duo, fe gewch gyfuniad trydanol o gerddoriaeth a symudiad.
