"The return of Mark Morris is cause for rejoicing. One of the world's most-loved choreographers" THE INDEPENDENT

A master of contemporary dance, American choreographer Mark Morris returns to Sadler's Wells with seven works never before seen in the UK, divided into two programmes, and featuring live music by the MMDG Music Ensemble.

Programme A includes The Muir, an evolution of the graceful yet powerful Cease Your Funning, featuring Irish and Scottish folk songs arranged by Beethoven; the new ensemble Crosswalk, which premiered earlier this year; and the "simply beautiful, sensuously attractive" (New York Times) Socrates, set to Erik Satie's score.

Programme B features the "charming, exhilarating" (New York Observer) Festival Dance; a new duet Jenn and Spencer, set the to the music of Henry Cowell; the piano-accompanied sextet Excursions, and A Wooden Tree, set to recordings by the Scottish poet and humourist Ivor Cutler.

"When you have lost your faith in the power of pure dance to touch the heart and feed the head, this is where you come to have faith restored" THE TIMES
