MARK MORRIS was born on August 29, 1956 in Seattle, WA, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. He performed with a variety of companies in the early years of his career, including the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, Hannah Kahn Dance Company, Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, Eliot Feld Ballet and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980, and has since created more than 100 works for the Dance Group, as well as choreographing dances for many ballet companies, including the San Francisco Ballet, the Paris Opera Ballet and American Ballet Theatre. From 1988-1991 he was director of dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. During his tenure there, he created 12 pieces including three evening-length works: The Hard Nut (his comic book-inspired version of The Nutcracker); L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; and Dido and Aeneas, and founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Morris is noted for his musicality—he has been described as “undeclining in his devotion to music”—and for his “ability to conjure so many contradictory styles and emotions”. He has worked extensively in opera as both a choreographer and a director. Most recently, he directed and choreographed a Royal Opera, Covent Garden production of Rameau’s Platée that premiered at the Edinburgh International Festival in 1997 and had its New York debut with the New York City Opera in April 2000 at Lincoln Center. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991, and he is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus & Giroux).

MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert that year in New York City. In the following years, the company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities both in the US and in Europe and, in 1986, the Dance Group made its first national television program for the PBS Dance in America series. In 1988, the Mark Morris Dance Group was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium. During its three years as resident company of the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the Dance Group was the subject of several television programs, including the UK's South Bank Show. The company returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies, performing across the US and at major international festivals. The Dance Group has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world, most notably Berkeley, CA where, for the past several years, the Dance Group has performed twice annually at Cal Performances—including presentations of The Hard Nut each December from 1996-1999. Audiences have also become accustomed to the Dance Group's regular and frequent appearances in Boston, MA; Fairfax, VA; London, England; and at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Becket, MA. The Dance Group was recently named the official dance company (2000-2005) of the Virginia Waterfront International Arts Festival. In addition to a full international touring schedule, the Dance Group has recently completed two film projects: an Emmy Award-winning collaboration with cellist Yo-Yo Ma entitled Falling Down Stairs using Bach's Third Suite for unaccompanied cello and a film version of Morris' Dido and Aeneas. The company's British premiere performances of L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato with the English National Opera garnered the Dance Group the 1997 Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Dance Production. The Mark Morris Dance Group celebrated its 20th anniversary with a three-week season at the Brooklyn Academy of Music in March 2001. In spring 2001, the Dance Group will open the Mark Morris Dance Center in Brooklyn, New York. This 20,000 square foot facility will feature three studios and will be the company's first permanent headquarters in the US.

JOE BOWIE, born in Lansing, MI, began dancing while attending Brown University. After graduating with honors in English and American literature, he moved to New York and performed in the works of Robert Wilson, Ulysses Dove, and danced with the Paul Taylor Dance Company for two years before going to Belgium to work with Mark Morris in 1989.

These recordings have been placed on the New York Times "Ten Best of the Year" lists for 2000, 1999 and 1998. In the year 2001 Iverson's regular trio with Reid Anderson and Billy Hart will tour Italy and America, and he will also perform with a quartet including Bill McHenry as co-leader. This February marks his first major recital in New York with a solo concert at Weill Hall. McDonald has choreographed and presented his own works internationally and has served as choreographer for seven Juilliard Opera Company productions under the director Frank Corsaro. MIREILLE RADWAN-DANA joined the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1988. "The six Grandfathers have placed in this world many things, all of which should be happy. Every little thing is sent for something, and in that thing there should be happiness and the power to make happy. Like the grasses showing tender faces to each other, thus we should do, for this was the wish of the Grandfathers of the world." (Black Elk)
